NEW!!! SNORKEL WITH ORCAS!

November 22-29, 2020

Blue Green Expeditions is headed on an adventure truly out of the ordinary! We will be snorkeling with Orcas in the Fjords of Norway. Due to the wintry conditions of Northern Norway, this is a trip for the true adventurer. Large amounts of herring gather in these northern waters and with the herring, brings the hunters. It is an extraordinary spectacle to watch hundreds of Orcas in the sea and then be among the few explorers to experience snorkeling with them. Humpback whales, fin whales and minke are commonly seen in these waters too. Orcas do not tolerate open circuit scuba so we will only be snorkeling with them. While we cannot dive with the cetaceans, we will explore diving possibilities in the fjords so bring your dive gear. In the evenings, we will be delighted by the beauty of the northern lights. This is one unique adventure you will want to join us for!

Cabin berths start at $4200/person. 8 maximum!

EASTERN INDONESIA Aboard the PINDITO

August 9-20, 2021

The archipelago of Alor includes 6 islands with Pantar and Alor being the biggest ones. There are more than 60 impressive and mostly untouched dive sites around Alor. Most lie in the nutrient-rich Pantar Straits between Alor and Pantar. The Pindito has been diving this area for a few years now. During your dives along this exciting new route you can expect to see incredible underwater biodiversity. In addition, nutrient rich upwelling waters bring in pelagics: Sunfish (mola-mola), thresher sharks, hammerhead sharks, humpback whales, and even marlin and sailfish. Further, the many protected pristine reefs provide a perfect home for smaller colorful creatures and up to 1,000 species of coral reef fishes and 500 species of corals. Walls, bommies, caves and patch reef formations make for dramatic 3D underwater topography while black sand areas provide perfect habitat for muck diving and cryptic critters.

$5570/person including nitrox and port fees

ICELAND/GREENLAND COMBO

September 5-20, 2021

This unique expedition highlights the best of the Arctic. In Iceland, dive between two continental plates in the gin clear waters of Silfra, explore geothermal lakes and rivers, and dive hydrothermal vents all while enjoying amazing top side scenery, fantastic food and the unique Icelandic culture. After boarding the ship to Greenland, we will enjoy whale watching and aurora borealis from the ship as we approach Greenland. There we will explore virgin dive sites as well as enjoy spectacular top side scenery including the largest icebergs in the world and traditional villages where people still survive on seals, musk oxen and polar bear. Divers and non-divers alike will be enthralled by the landscape above and below the water. Not a diver, no problem...there is plenty to do!

MALPELO ABOARD THE M/V FEROX

December 1-11, 2021

Malpelo is a remote volcanic island located over 300 miles off the coast of Columbia. It is the largest no fishing zone in the Eastern Tropical Pacific and is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The deep water and various ocean currents make this the perfect place for an extraordinary shark population. It is widely acclaimed as one of the top diving sites in the world due to the large aggregates of sharks and pelagic species. Due to the strong ocean currents, this is a destination for experienced divers and all divers must have an Advanced Open Water certification, Nitrox certification and at least 50 logged dives. Massive schools of hammerhead and silky sharks are found here along with Galapagos, white tip, whale sharks, manta and eagle rays, free-swimming moray eels, as well as the reclusive small tooth sand tiger. If you are looking to dive with hundreds of hammerheads and silky sharks you want to join Blue Green Expeditions on this adventure!

Cabins start at $6900/person and includes all of the National Park fees as well as nitrox

HELEN'S REEF: DEEP SOUTH PALAU

January 21-February 1, 2022

Most trips only take you to the well-travelled part of this amazing island nation, but we will explore virgin territory in the deep southern part of Palau- Helen's Reef. You can expect pristine reefs, lots of pelagics and plenty of peace and quiet with few other boats in the area. We are timing this for the general time of the bumphead parrotfish mating season so this could also be a highlight. Once again, we take you off the beaten path aboard the modern and extremely comfortable Solitude!

Cabins start at $5500/person double occupancy

SOUTH AFRICA OCEAN SAFARI

February 6-18, 2022

This adventure is a true smorgasbord of South Africa. We will be based out of Port Elizabeth and our diving will focus on finding baitballs and other pelagics – hopefully, free diving and scuba diving on them. However, there is so much more the area has to offer including colorful reef dives with ragged tooth (sand tigers) and cat sharks, seals and rays. Combined with 2 days of guided land safaris in Addo National Park (Big5) and Kragga Kamma Game Park, you will experience the some of the best animal encounters South Africa has to offer.

Double Occupancy $5900/person double occupancy

ANTARCTICA plus the Sub Antarctic Islands and Polar Circle

February 20-March 15, 2022

Antarctica is always special, but this is an amazing itinerary commemorating the 100th anniversary of Ernest Shackleton's death. We will start in Ushuaia and travel to the Falklands, South Georgia Islands (where Shackleton is buried), South Orkney Islands, Elephant Island and finally to the Antarctica Peninsula where we will venture far south past the polar circle. This trip is perfect for those with a thirst for exploration as we venture to virgin dive sites, tour historic and current research stations and more while seeing the best Antarctica has to offer. And at the best time of the year as well! This trip will sell out VERY quickly so please do not hesitate to book.

Only open to 24 divers and up to 8 snorkelers.

Cabins start at $17,200/person for quad occupancy.
