WOMEN DIVERS HALL OF FAME™

All trip proceeds benefit the WDHOFF Scholarship and Training Grants Fund

Socorro Island is one of those rare places on earth where big animals' rule! Socorro has a large concentration of friendly mantas and dolphins, schooling hammerheads, silky sharks, whale sharks, and we will be diving during humpback whale season! You may see whales on the surface, hear them in the water, and possibly see them during a dive! This is one trip you don't want to miss!

We will be traveling aboard the luxury Nautilus Belle Amie liveaboard dive boat. You can see mantas in many places around the world but nowhere else boasts a population of giant mantas that literally seek out interaction with divers and snorkelers. The behavior these giant mantas exhibit is almost inexplicable.

These gentle giants, with a wingspan up to 20-feet, consistently approach divers for intimate eye-to-eye encounters. If you are able to be calm and still, you are almost sure to experience what we call, "manta love."

While mantas are the reason many divers voyage to Socorro, there are lots of other animals to see, such as schooling hammerheads, silky and other species of sharks, bottlenose dolphins that consistently hang out with divers, large schools of pelagic fish, and humpback whales!

Join us for this amazing experience and the opportunity to benefit the WDHOFF Scholarship and Training Grants Fund !!
