RARE TOUR TO THE DEEP SOUTH!

This adventurous expedition offers a unique opportunity to discover very rarely visited places, deep South along the coast of Antarctica to the Bellingshausen Sea, along the coast of Ellsworth Land and even to Peter I Island. We will have diving and snorkeling opportunities as well as helicopters so it is a true land, sea and air adventure. In addition to visiting some of the most spectacular sites on the western side of the Antarctic Peninsula, we will explore well below the Antarctic Circle. Highlights include Marguerite Bay, Ellsworth Land and Peter I Island. Bring your spirit of exploration!
