

Sea of Cortez

October 14 - October 24, 2022

Explore all of Baja in luxury aboard the Nautilus Gallant Lady! This beautiful boat accommodates 12 guests in six spacious suites for a first-class experience.

This trip is October 14-24, 2022, starting in Cabo San Lucas and ending in Loreto. Guests are offered a choice of flying out of Loreto or joining a group transfer back to Cabo and flying from there. A private charter will be provided for this.

Cousteau called the Sea of Cortez the, "Aquarium of the World." Expect to see a lot of fish. A LOT of fish! California sea lions. Giant manta rays. A variety of shark species, including the possibility of hammerheads, several shipwrecks, garden eels, and diving cormorant birds.

This amazing journey will allow you to experience all the beauty and biodiversity through the Sea of Cortez.

We will be exploring the best of the southern Sea of Cortez, including the wreck of the ferry Salvatierra, beautiful Suwanee Reef - teeming with life. La Reina, Las Animas, and Cerralvo Island.

We will also travel to the UNESCO World Heritage site; Cabo Pulmo. This marine park is the easternmost barrier reef in the Pacific. The park is also home to hundreds of fish such as, grouper, jack, many species of sharks, humpback whales, turtles, massive rays, sea lions, and much, much more.
